This is part of the contract, even if you are not aware of a re-delivery. Proof of suitability: Prequalified companies provide proof of suitability by being listed on the list of the Association for the Prequalification of Construction Companies (prequalification directory). If subcontractors are used, proof must be provided upon separate request that they are prequalified or meet the requirements for prequalification.

Non-prequalified companies must submit the completed "Self-Declaration of Suitability" form with their bid as preliminary proof of suitability. If subcontractors are used, self-declarations must also be submitted for them upon separate request. If the subcontractors are prequalified, it is sufficient to state their number in the list of the Association for the Prequalification of Construction Companies.

(prequalification list). If the bid is shortlisted, the self-declarations (including those of subcontractors) must be confirmed upon separate request by submitting the certificates from the competent authorities listed in the "Self-Declaration of Suitability." Certificates not written in German must be accompanied by a German translation.
