NOTICE of Call for Tender # 001/PROC/NER01/MDI/FY25

CARE INTERNATIONAL, hereinafter referred to as "CARE", is a non-profit and apolitical humanitarian organization. It has been present in Niger since 1974. Through its various programs and projects, CARE intervenes in the areas of emergency response, food and nutrition security, natural resource management and conflict prevention, and leadership and empowerment of women and youth across the 7 regions of the country.

The purpose of this call for tender is to obtain competitive proposals and select a service provider for the cleaning services of the CARE Maradi office. All eligible, qualified and competent suppliers operating in the field are invited to submit bids.

All eligible, qualified and competent suppliers to provide this service and as per the details in the Schedule are invited to submit their proposals.

Bidders must be domiciled and in compliance with all government regulations for operating in Niger. They must be taxpayers in good standing to provide the services specified in the tender, and must provide a copy of their operating licenses or registration certificates valid for the current fiscal year. Bidders must not be subject to a declaration of ineligibility for corrupt or fraudulent practices.

Interested and duly qualified suppliers can withdraw the Call for Tender documents free of charge from April 23, 2025 at the CARE Niger/Burkina Faso Office in Maradi or by downloading it directly from the publication link.
